

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1837.

OLD "WAR HAWKS."

"WAR HAWK" was the opprobrious epithet applied to every DEMOCRAT who supported his country during the late war—men who pledged their private fortunes and credit to sustain the government—these men were tried in the fire of adversity, and displayed the same extraordinary patriotism and firmness that carried our Fathers through the REVOLUTION, and enabled them to win for us the LIBERTY we now enjoy. When that severe contest was decided, many of these patriotic citizens withdrew, in a great degree, from the agitating scenes of the day, and have mingled but little more with the politics of the nation since, than to exercise their elective franchise—but such are the bold assaults at the present time, upon the principles they have so long cherished, and triumphantly defended, that many of them are again taking the field in opposition to their former enemies. We met an old "War Hawk," the other day, who remarked that he had arrived at that period of life when quiet was much more agreeable to him than agitation; but so satisfied was he that it was vitally important to the preservation of Republican Liberty, that the democratic measures recommended in the President's Message should be sustained, he had made up his mind to again enter the field—"ENLIST FOR THE WAR," and fight the battle unto the end. No message, said he, since the days of Jefferson, has been more clearly based upon the essential principles of DEMOCRACY, than Mr Van Buren's—the PEOPLE must sustain it, or they will soon become the serfs of the ARISTOCRACY—an aristocracy ten fold more oppressive and intolerant than that which advocated a monarchical form of government at the conclusion of the Revolution, for they took that ground from an honest belief that the people were incapable of self-government, and thought it best for the country that a KING should be placed over it—but the present aristocracy are of mushroom growth; generally the descendants of the TORIES of the Revolution—not of those who fought to achieve our Liberty, but mistrusted the democracy. These mushrooms want to overthrow our present Republican government that they may enjoy exclusive privileges—that a few may be made rich upon the labor of the mass, and that the mighty sources of wealth which abound throughout our nation may only be turned towards their coffers—they would monopolize the soil—they would cut off competition by acts of incorporation prohibiting all rivalry—and, in short, reduce the PEOPLE to ignorance and poverty, and then take their money to pay a standing army to murder them if they dared to murmur! This is a short turn, said the "War Hawk," but I come to the result at once which we shall experience in a few years, unless the democracy of the country, old and young, come into the field, and boldly maintain their rights. Now is the time for action—let every hand be raised in support of the administration.

A WHIG VICTORY DISSECTED.

We stated a few days since that the whigs, alias the federalists, had gained nothing in the election of Mr Gilmer, as Governor of Georgia. His whole public life has shown his principles to be radically opposed to those of the federal party. We now find that a southern correspondent of the New York Daily News has sifted the matter, and left the whig party "a mighty mean" sort of a victory to exult over. This writer says, "no one who knows anything of Georgia politics or elections, can fail to know, that on every ground of principle, Gilmer is as much opposed to whiggery, as Schley; and that the contest between them, upon the grounds where their several friends place it, is in fact, a total extinguishment of a whig party within the limits of the State of Georgia." Mr Gilmer, as the writer says, "was formerly a Troup man, and co-operated with the party, which, being friends of Wm. H. Crawford, were attached to Mr Van Buren, and voted for him for the Vice Presidency in 1824. They left the administration of Gen Jackson at the time of the Proclamation, and most of them became nullifiers. Mr Gilmer, however, never was a nullifier. His and their ground of hostility to the Jackson party, were the very measures which only the national republicans, now whigs, approved. The other, or Clark party, in Georgia, aided by a portion of the Troup men, became the Union men—and though originally hostile to Mr Van Buren, as a Crawford man, came into the support of the administration of Gen Jackson. Since Gen Jackson has left the field, the party struggles in Georgia have had more reference to the re-establishment of the old party lines, than to the mere questions of federal politics. So far as Mr Van Buren is individually concerned, there is a large number of the State Rights party better disposed, from old associations, to unite with him, than many of the Clark, or Union party." Mr Gilmer is a most decided adversary of a United Bank, and is entirely at variance with the whig party in all his opinions upon the currency. In the panic session of 1834, as a member of Congress, he sustained the removal of the deposits by his vote.

The writer also demonstrates that there is a real gain to Mr Van Buren, personally, in the result of this very election.

Whig boasts this year will prove as empty and deceptive as those that have been made by that bragging faction, annually, since 1828.

"Through all the revolutions of politics—thru' all the phases of rising and setting, of waxing and waning Statesmen, he has been the same."—Eulogy of a whig print upon Henry Clay.

COMMENTS.—The U. S. Bank question has been the dividing line of parties for the last twenty-five years. In 1811 Mr Clay most vehemently opposed the establishment of such an institution, on constitutional grounds, and argued that there was no necessity, and that Congress had no right to create a necessity, for such a bank.

In 1834 Mr Clay was the leading champion for the re-charter of Biddle's Bank, and in 1837, he avers that a national bank is necessary, and points to such an institution as "the only remedy" for national evils!

These contraries in Mr Clay's course could not have been embraced in the infantile discoveries of his eulogist. Modesty.—If the Atlas continues to swell, the Committee of Public Safety will be compelled to hoop it before Monday. Speaking of Texas, it says, "our readers will find in our various articles upon the subject, ALL THE ARGUMENTS AND REASONS, which are collected and arranged in a more compact form in Dr Channing's Letter to Henry Clay."

The Atlas is puffed up like a soap bubble, about this time. The feds ought to put the Major into the Legislature—his defeat when he was a candidate a year or two ago was all a mistake. Try it again, neighbor, if you are not afraid of "another box o' the ear."

The Atlas is beating the air about the admission of Texas into the Union—the Cabinet at Washington, and all the folks this way, are opposed to such a measure—Mr Preston, Mr Wise, and a few opposition members of Congress are in favor of it, but they have not strength enough to do any harm.

GREAT ATTRACTION.

The Boston federalists have engaged John Bell, of Tennessee—(how will his constituents like his amalgamation with Hartford Conventionism?)—and Mr Graves, of Kentucky, to perform for them on Friday night, at Faneuil Hall—on which occasion Daniel Webster will appear for the first and only time this season. Messrs Hoffman and Curtis, from New York, and Rice Garland from Louisiana, are expected to take parts either in the Play or Afterpiece. Doors open at 6 o'clock—Performances commence at 7. A strong Police will be provided to preserve order in the galleries, and other parts of the house. Shipplasters received at the door. Checks not transferable. Ruffle shirts furnished to gentlemen who intend to occupy the Dress Circle, gratis, by the Committee of Public Safety. The Committee, in order that they may be able to supply the demand, have magnanimously agreed to give up one half of their own number, and will appear double—i. e. two in a shirt.

Mr Fletcher turned his back on the picture of Washington, on Monday night, at Faneuil Hall, and delivered a very bitter federal speech. He crows much louder here than he did in the House of Representatives.

Sale of Musical Instruments.—We would call the attention of professors and amateurs to the sale of the musical instruments belonging to the estate of the late Mr Graupner. Some of the articles are, particularly the Tenors, superior to any in the country. So good an opportunity for procuring first rate instruments will not soon occur.—Atlas.

There are some other things, property of the late Mr G., advertised to be sold, which fact has excited no small surprise—among them is "I Gold Pencil Case." This "Pencil Case" was a gift to Mr Graupner from his pupils, and was presented with this Note:—

"Miss Swan and Miss Bond, with the young ladies who have had the pleasure of receiving instruction from Mr Graupner, request that he will do them the favor to accept the enclosed Pencil Case, as a testimony of their respect for his character, and their gratitude for his invariable politeness and kind attentions to them.

Medford, May 18, 1821."

On the Pencil Case is inscribed—
"Gottlieb Graupner—pledge of respect and gratitude, Medford, May 28, 1821."

"I Silver Snuff Box," "I Gold Watch Chain and Seal," and "I Gold Purse," are also advertised. On the Purse is inscribed—
"M. Graupner, gage du reconnaissance et respect des ses ecoliers a Medford."

Now, Mr Editor, does the law require that a widow must be stripped of all such little mementoes of her husband? If it does, I think it a most cruel one. Certainly no heir could be such an unfeeling being as to wish to force from her those endearing tokens—the only consolation left her for the loss of one whose death widowed all her joys. I hope that the small relics—so unimportant to any one else, but so precious to her in whose possession they now are—will, by some means, be suffered to remain with Mrs G. The sale is to-day. A PUPIL.

N. Orleans dates to 30th ultimo have been received. There had been frost at N. Orleans and at Mobile, and the sickness had nearly ceased in both places. A duel was fought at N. O. on the 26th ult. and one of the parties mortally wounded. A butcher committed suicide on the same day "for love." The schr Velasco, which sailed for Texas from N. O. on the 23d of Sept., is supposed to be lost, with 70 passengers. The schr Columbus was wrecked on the 3d Oct.—the schr DeKalb, Texas, and Taney were driven ashore in Brassos river, but will get off—the Amanda was wrecked on the 4th.

The schr Levin Jones, Capt Williams, eleven days from Tampico, arrived at N. O. on the 27th Oct. with upwards of one hundred thousand dollars in specie, to different consignees—reports the brig Tallahassee, from Philadelphia, to have been completely wrecked on the 22d inst. a little to the southward of Tampico bar, but mentions no other particulars. All was said to be quiet at Tampico.

New Orleans, Oct. 30.—The Philadelphia packet ship, Edward Bonafie, lying opposite the Mint, was discovered to be on fire at half past 3 o'clock. She has a full cargo of cotton and sugar. She will be a total loss.

Tampico, Oct. 8.—The private information we have received from Mexico, represents the country to be in a most deplorable condition. Marauders swarm on every highway, while the imbecile government, despite its good intentions, cannot check robbery.

You have doubtless learned the revolt of the entire province of New Mexico, which has separated itself from the American republic, has declared itself independent, and solicits annexation to the American Union. All that I can say, adds our correspondent, is, that Mexico is rapidly falling into dissolution.—N. O. Bee.

The Steam Packet.—The committee appointed by the citizens of Charleston, to examine into the particulars of the wreck of this packet, have reported that the boat was unseaworthy, and that the Captain was intoxicated—the latter we do not believe.

The New Bedford Mercury has been peeping into somebody's pocket, and says it saw a letter there written by Judge Morton—we shall soon know whether it speaks the truth or not, for its fingers will be there in a little while.

The Transcript, after several unsuccessful attempts to describe Binbo to its N. York friends through its columns, has been compelled to depart for that city in the form of its editor, to give verbal instructions.

Railroad to Stonington.—The New York, Providence and Boston Railroad Co., will open their road to the public on Friday, the 10th inst. The Directors, and several invited guests, will make an excursion at 12 o'clock, to Stonington and back.

The Piracy Hoax begins to circulate quite briskly among the interior presses. Our brother typos up country will have good pickings in the horrible till thanksgiving time.

The editor of the New Orleans Bee assaulted the editor of the Picayune, in the streets of that city on the 27th ult.—Pic. received a few blows, and the affair thus ended.

Among the distinguished strangers now in Boston, is the Hon. Mr KING, Senator from Alabama.

An editor in the far West offers to take his pay in dried peaches and apples.

The election in New York will end to-day—the feds begin to shake in their shoes for the result, already.

Fire—Incendiarism.—Last night at 1 o'clock, a fire was discovered issuing from the rear of the house of Mr Henry G. Chapman, in West Street. The Department was promptly on the spot, and the fire put out, after nearly destroying the wood shed and out house. At 5 this morning it burst out afresh, and was again put out by the early attendance of the neighbors. On a close examination of the premises after the first alarm, it was discovered that the premises had been visited by an incendiary, and fired in two places—one inside the privy where paper, cotton cloth, and matches had been placed, and fired, which appeared to have gone out, leaving parts of the materials on the floor—the other on the outside of the wood shed, with chips, paper and matches, which communicated with the wood and the shed, which was nearly destroyed before it was extinguished.—Transcript.

POLICE COURT.

We were very sorry to say, that young Jacob Fox has not seen the evil of his ways, although we very affectionately pointed them out to him, several months ago. (Vide, which is the Latin for see, or look at pages 142 and 143 of our volume of Reports.) When we first proclaimed his offence against law and decency, we gave him the nom de guerre of Jacob Renard, in consideration of his youth; but neither our forbearance, nor his father's horse whip, have profited him any, for on Monday night, Constable Tallant, of the North Watch, overhauled him cutting up a caper similar to that for which we pointed him, and the Court fined him.

Mary Ann Mason is said to be a frail sister, upon whom for some months past Jacob had quartered himself, being supported by her sinful gains. She avers that he has cost her clear four hundred dollars, besides sundry jewels. She found him to be an unprofitable protector, and, in order to get rid of him, hired new quarters in Prince street. There he last night traced her, and, with the assistance of an equally graceless ally, he got up a general fight. Tallant peeped into the window, and saw her at the cap jumping. The lady and her new friend cried for help, and Jacob was trampled off to jail. At the moment of his arrest he had in his bosom a very valuable breast-pin, belonging to her, and which Mr Tallant restored to her. He pleaded guilty, and was fined Four Dollars and Costs.

A Stupid Thief.—All thieves are fools in the abstract, but Richard Davis was in no practice, too. On Monday evening, he entered a room belonging to the Missionary Rooms, and stole the Rev. R. S. Neal's snuff-out, and then stood round the premises several minutes, probably with the view of stealing something else. He was nabbed on the spot, and as he had acted like a dunkee, so like a dunkee he spoke. He was committed to answer at the Municipal Court.

The Rumored Incendiary.—There was an awful quantity of secret whispering and chismaclevy in the private apartments attached to the Court yesterday, about a supposed incendiary. An unknown young gentleman was arrested on Monday night, on a suspicion of being an incendiary, and as he did not answer interrogatories very promptly and would not tell where he had been, he was safely locked up in jail, and yesterday his dire crime was confidentially communicated to the Court. All was therefore mum and mysterious—expectation was on tip-toe, and citizens, breathless with hard running, bobbed in and out of Court, as anxious and curious to know the result, as were the ladies at Faneuil Hall to see if that rare Indian, Young Black Hawk, was like other men. Things jogged on in this way till night-fall, when the awful secret leaked out, thus:—The poor prisoner stuttered, and could not have talked straight if it would have saved his life; and, what was worse, he had been out a-courting, and didn't like to tell who his "gal" was!

The British Charitable Society celebrated their 21st anniversary by a dinner at Concert Hall, yesterday. In consequence of the indisposition of the President, Wm. S. Skinner, Esq., the Chair was filled by Robert E. Manners, Esq., the British Vice Consul. Roast beef and plum pudding, and other good cheer abounded. Several toasts referring to Old England, and the relation which the members of the Society bore to this country, were drunk, with loud cheers. Reverence for the father-land, and a resolution to discharge their duty to their adopted home, were prevailing sentiments expressed by all. The evening passed off with a happy union of conviviality and harmony.

The Rev. Dr Sharpe read an interesting report, from the Standing Committee, from which it appeared probable that more than the usual number of demands upon the beneficence of the Society will be made during the coming season. The funds now held by the Society are a little rising four thousand dollars.

On Tuesday night the shop of Mr Asa Jones, in Front street, was broken open, but nothing of much value was taken. From the shop the thief got access to a barn in the rear, and stole a horse therefrom.—Briggs's Bulletin.

The British cruisers have taken possession of the Island of Key Sal and Aquilla, and sent the natives to Havana. They have also captured a Spanish slaver, and sent her into Havana.

A teamster, belonging to Dorchester Upper Mills, was run over by his wagon yesterday afternoon, in Roxbury street, and so much injured that he expired in a few minutes after the accident occurred.

The order for an increase of the watch, was unanimously passed in concurrence.

The order granting the use of part of the city lands for a public garden was passed in concurrence.

CONSUMPTION
Is a wasting or decay of the whole body, from Ulcers, or Concretion of the Lungs, a collection of purulent matter in the cavity of the breast, a disease in which food cannot contribute to the support of the body.
THE ONLY SURE RESOURCE IS TO ASSIST NATURE
for that purpose, DR. GORDAK, has invented two unrivalled VEGETABLE MEDICINES,
Jelly of Pomegranate AND ICELAND JELLY.
The Jelly of Pomegranate will promote expectorations of the matter which collects in the cavity of the breast, without irritating those delicate organs, and the Iceland Jelly will nourish the body, which food denies to patients laboring under the above disease.
The fact has been proved in the City of Boston and vicinity. There are a great many who were in the above condition, and have given a fair trial of the above named Medicines, they enjoy now comfortable health. About twenty who have been given over by eminent Physicians, have revived and are now doing well.
Directions, Causes, Symptoms and Regimen, you will receive with the Medicines.

REMOVAL.

INCORRUPTIBLE PORCELAIN TEETH.—The subscriber returns his sincere thanks to the citizens of Boston for the liberal patronage he has received from them during the last year—he has now removed his office to a more central situation, and owing to the great number of teeth invited by him daily he is enabled to reduce his terms at least 50 per cent on all operations from this date. The average price for the best Porcelain Teeth will be, on gold plate $8, plus $1 to $1.50, filling and cleaning 75 cents to $1, and all operations warranted for the term of five years. He will continue to visit persons at their residence and complete any operations in two visits half an hour each. He has within the last three years instructed several Dentists in this city, who are now practising with great success.

CHARLES J. HOULT, No 1 Winter street.
